OUR CASTLE OF KNOWLEDGE

MR. VON LEVERN came to Roosevelt as assistant-principal in 1924. He became principal in 1939.

Our system of Student Government was organized by Mr. von Levern in 1925 as a means of giving students an opportunity to practice democratic living in leadership and self-control. This system has grown continually under his guidance and is admired by schools throughout the country. Delegates from various schools have studied the plan in the hope of employing a similar system. A student council helps to regulate the school life, but Mr. von Levern occasionally is called upon to solve a problem.

MISS M. NELSON

MISS MERCEDES NELSON, assistant-principal at Roosevelt, does the programming for the school and advises girls in personal problems. In addition to teaching first aid, she is on the health council. MR. E. N. STRANDJORD, assistant-principal, advises and guides the Student Council. He also advises visitors who want to study our Student Government by showing them this system actually at work.

MR. E. N. STRANDJORD

MISS A. McCRADIE

MISS ANNIE McCRADIE is counselor of Roosevelt girls. She advises them as to a suitable program and is in charge of job placement of graduates. She is also adviser of Senior Honor Society. MR. ARTHUR PALMQUIST is counselor of Roosevelt boys. He helps them choose a program that will benefit them later in a chosen profession. He is adviser of Senior Honor Society.

Christmas Caroling

During the gay, festive week preceding Christmas vacation, everyone at Roosevelt is in a happy mood. Home rooms are having parties, auditoriums are given, and the tradi-tional caroling takes place before school each morning. Formerly the singing was held in the front hall around the Christmas tree. This year it was moved into the auditorium, around the organ, with C. Wesley Andersen directing and providing the accompaniment.

Three Sharps and a Flat

Well, kids, what do you think of the Teddies' new barber shop quartet? Now, girls, don't swoon! They have just recently organized and are learning to harmonize very nicely. Not only do they sing well together, but each has his favorite song. Mr. Weum's is "Dry Bones"; Mr. Buckman's is "So Tired"; Mr. Halron's is "Racing With the Moon"; and Mr. Bones' is "Leave the Bones for Henry Jones."

Group Projects

The senior year in Common Learnings is spent studying English Literature. Students arrange the course of study in a manner that will make it most interesting and advantageous. Groups give various reports and plays. A Shakespearean theatre was built in connection with the studies, to better illustrate the trends and customs of the period.

Learning to successfully operate a mimeograph machine is a requirement which will later benefit girls planning to enter a commercial profession. A practice teacher demonstrates the essentials, and the students learn by assistance.

Members of the Court

"Noblesse Oblige" is the motto of the Senior Honor Society which was organized in 1925. The club pin is a blazing torch which symbolizes the light of knowledge. The club advisers are Miss McCradie and Mr. Palmquist who are counselors at Roosevelt.

To become a member of this organization a student must maintain a scholarship average of 2.3 during the tenth and eleventh grades, have an excellent character, have the ability of leadership, and have a willingness to serve the school.

Looks Good!

Mrs. Lanstad, J. Lanstad, Werhan

One of the activities in which the club members take part is the annual homecoming button sale. At the semi-annual initiation the newly chosen members are sworn into the National Honor Society. Once each year the club members participate in an outstanding educational trip. This trip may include a visit at some college. On May 25 the Honor Society members flew to Rochester, Minn., and were guests of the Chamber of Commerce.

Their Majesties

We, the Sagamore staff of 1949, have enjoyed preparing your annual, and we sincerely wish that it will capture the approval of you, the students and the faculty. This year we present as our theme, In the Days of the Knights.

We hope that you will allow the Knights of Roosevelt Castle to take you on a journey through the past year of activities and that it will bring back memories that you want to cherish—homecoming and the football games; the Winter Carnival and the class banquets; the clubs and even the classrooms where we all worked so hard remembering chemistry formulas, memorizing historical dates, and learning theorems for geometry.

During the past nine years the Sagamore has received an All-American award eight times. We are proud of this record as the All-American is the highest rating given to yearbooks by the National Scholastic Press Association.

The students on the Sagamore staff have been chosen by Mr. Wagner. Last fall the staff consisted of twelve seniors, and in January it was supplemented by six juniors who will be the foundation for the 1950 staff. The students must have a good scholastic standing and be dependable workers.

Knight Reporters

The Roosevelt Standard, which is published on Thursday, presents a resume of the week's news to all students. The new motto adopted by the staff is "If the Standard doesn't come out, it isn't Thursday." Roosevelt students should be proud of their weekly publication as the Standard has won the All-American rating many times and has also won honors in the International Quill and Scroll.

To become a member of the staff, a student must complete News I and show an ability to write news articles. The staff meets each day the fourth period in room 325. If you happen to go by room 325 on Tuesday, you may wonder whether a complete issue of the Standard will really come out Thursday morning. Wednesday is Standard Day down at the printers. That is the day when page editors help set up type for their respective pages.

The Sagamore extends its sympathies to Mr. Nielsen. The staff is looking forward to the day when their sons and daughters will serve as the backbone of the Standard.

Editor's note: For security reasons the name of the author of the preceding paragraph must be withheld.

The Royalty

Quo Vadis is one of the newest clubs at Roosevelt. This club was founded in 1947 by combining the Qui Vive and the Pilots Clubs.

Each semester ten boys and ten girls are received into the club. Any IIA student with a "C" average or better is eligible for membership. It is the custom that of these new members a Vice-president be elected. In this way the club is assured of efficient leadership, even after the graduation of other officers.

Initiations are talked about and feared many weeks in advance. This year new members underwent the usual initiations and could be distinguished by a small maroon and gold ribbon as they bowed to senior members. They all agreed later that it was worth all the suffering and torture they went through.

The Quo Vadis Club holds its meetings every other Wednesday morning at eight o'clock A.M. Their slogan is: "Cooperation, Service, Loyalty, and Friendship." Each one of these aims is a worthy goal for all the members of the club.

The primary purpose of the club is to serve as ushers at all school events not already sponsored by some other club. Some of these events are the class play and choir concerts.

The club's advisers who deserve a great deal of credit for the club's success are Miss Bjorklund and Mr. Vogtsberger.

Alchemists

At precisely five minutes after three, Sam flies into room 223 and settles the prospective Einsteins down for an interesting Science Club meeting. This activity takes place every other Tuesday afternoon.

1922 was the first year for the Science Club. In 1949, the club has had many extraordinary meetings. Many times there have been interesting talks and discussions. Bob Hagerman came over from Hamline University to give a lecture on soaps and detergents (soap flakes to most of us). At another meeting the members made prisms to use for paperweights. Names were etched on the prisms with a special glass etching paste. One unusual day there was a demonstration of some solid fuel rockets, two of which met with unfortunate fates. Blood testing was the subject of another demonstration. At one meeting there was a lecture on the mysterious subject of astronomical and terrestrial telescopes. Another interesting demonstration was the removal of spots and stains. Various pieces of cloth were stained. These spots were removed by certain chemicals.

El Hispano Americano

"Adelante, siempre adelante" is the slogan of the Spanish Club. Translated into English this slogan means "Foreward, always foreward." El Hispano Americano was organized in the fall of 1941 and is directed by la Senora Hall.

In order to become members of this club, first term Spanish students must have a "B" average, but a "C" average is required of the students in their second term. The purpose of the club is to give students a better understanding of the people whose language they are studying. Meetings are held on the third Wednesday of every month. The members

Hi-Y Dukes

Under the direction of Mr. Weum, faculty adviser, and Chuck Swanson, downtown secretary, the Hi-Y lived up to its purpose of extending through the school and the community high standards of Christian character.

Throughout the year the Hi-Y was especially active in giving aid to organizations in need. The first thing they did was to prepare and deliver speeches in various churches to raise money for the Community Chest. F.O.B. (For Other Boys) was a drive to raise money for other boys who needed help in the war-torn countries.

The banquet was paid for largely by the money the members took in from concessions which they sold at home football games. At Christmas each club sold tickets for a dollar apiece. Room 328B has changed its name to the "Movie Room" so that Roosevelt now has a suitable place for showing movies. The Visual Crew, under the direction of Mr. Lobdell, takes care of setting up and operating the 16 mm. movie machine. If the teachers so desire, the machines are set up in their own classrooms. Wayne Nelson is crew chief.

The Audio Crew, under the direction of Mr. Blake, operates the sound system in the auditorium and also the P.A. system for the football games. The crew chief is William Perreault. The tape recorder and portable sound equipment may be operated in the classroom for individual teachers.

"Everybody swing your partner" is a familiar order to all Blue Triangle girls. This past year Blue Triangle, Silver Triangle, and Hi-Y members have held a number of barn dances.

Blue Triangle, a branch organization of the Y-Teens, is open to all senior girls of Roosevelt. The Y.W.C.A. sends out one of its representatives who works with the club advisers, Miss Heath, Miss Paleen, and Miss Leigh. This club has a Y-Teen pin which represents the Y-Teen fellowship throughout the world.

Inter-Club Council	Marna Sampson

The programs for this past semester have been centered around the individual. One meeting each semester is devoted to a service project. This year favors were made for the children at the University Hospital. Other social activities in which the club engaged are the Banquet with Dad, the Mother's Christmas Tea, and the annual morning Easter Service.

Each spring members of the Y-Teens send members of their own club to workshop meetings. At these meetings the girls are given information about their jobs.

Ladies in Waiting

"To face life squarely, to find and give the best" is the motto of Silver Tri's members. The Silver Tri has done many things to give their best in order to help others.

The club has several members who have a part in community service by reading to children and to old people for several hours each week. The girls have also made and sent presents to the needy people abroad. Another project they completed was to purchase, decorate, and send Christmas trees to the veterans' hospital through the Red Cross.

Their meetings are held every other Tuesday. On the Tuesdays that the club doesn't meet, cabinet meetings are held. At the meetings there is usually a speaker who discusses proper make up; hair styles; and, of course, the never-ending clothes problem. These talks are usually very interesting.

Lately square dancing has taken the state by storm. Not to be behind times, the Silver Tri has held several square dances. Everyone who went had a very good time. The girls also have put on several style shows which have been very helpful in choosing a new wardrobe.

Tenth and eleventh grade girls only are eligible for membership. Silver Tri has two advisers, Mrs. Jolly and Miss Haberman.

Die Deutsche Gesellschaft

Familiar indeed, to German Club members, are the strains of "Ach Du Lieber Augustin" as played by the Little German Band. This band also entertained at the Twin City Convention of German Clubs, held at Macalester in March. Several girls have formed a Girls' Chorus, and have learned several German songs with which they entertain the club.

A "B" average in German is necessary to be admitted into the club. After being interviewed by the cabinet, the prospective members are subjected to fiendish initiations. Of course, there is a serious and impressive part of the ceremony, too.

Club meetings are held on the second Thursday of the month. Miss Steinhauser, club adviser, meets with the cabinet a week before the business meetings.

Other activities of the club include C.A.R.E. packages to Germany, the Centennial exhibit in the library, and the annual basketball game with the Spanish Club.

"Frisch begonnen ist halb gewonnen" ambitiously states: A prompt beginning is half the winning.

Viking Invaders

The traditional Viking spirit has existed among the members of the Norse Club since the days of its organization back in 1926. The members are easily recognized by their Norwegian coat of arms.

To be a member of the Norse Club one must have had Norse or must be a member of one of the present classes.

Each year the club engages in many social activities. This year these activities include an initiation party, a Christmas party, and a senior farewell banquet. The Norsemen, in cooperation with the music department and the Swedes, stage an annual Scandinavian festival. Last year's concert was a great success.

and we may look forward to even greater things this year.

The club meets on the second and the fourth Thursdays of every month. The Norse Club meetings are always made interesting and worthwhile by talks by some prominent speaker. Throughout the year authorities on Norwegian music, art, and literature provide the entertainment.

The club does not award a trophy, but a Norse trophy is given each year by the Sons of Norway.

Masters of Retort

The Roosevelt National Forensic League, under the direction of Mr. Levi Osterhus, has finished another year of speech activities. They have gone to all of the important tournaments including those at Augsburg Seminary and College and at South St. Paul. They also attended the Gustavus Adolphus Speech Meet at St. Peter and the State High School League tournaments. The season finale was the regional N.F.L. tourney held at Mankato for two days. As a whole it proved to be a very successful season for the local orators, and Coach Osterhus has now laid plans for next year's return of many veterans.

Although debate is the chief function of this club, other forms of speech work are also stressed. Discussion, extemporaneous speaking, dramatic reading, and oratory are a few of the varied types of speech competition.

To be eligible for membership, a person must be active in debate and take a real interest in all speech activities. The N.F.L., as the name signifies, is a national club organized to promote speech activities. A nationwide contest is sponsored each year by the organi-

The Roosevelt chapter is part of the district, state, and national organization. A member may work for the following ranks: Green Hand, Chapter Farmer, State Farmer, and National or American Farmer.

There are four qualifications for membership in the club. The prospective member must have enrolled in vocational agriculture and must have a satisfactory farming program. He must also recite the F.F.A. creed from memory and receive a majority vote from the members.

The Future Farmers have an emblem which is very significant. Five symbols are used: the owl, the plow, and the rising sun. These appear in the cross section of an ear of corn which is surmounted by the American Eagle. Upon the face of the emblem appear the words "Vocational Agriculture" and the letters F.F.A.

Each member has a farm practice program, and most of them work on farms during summer vacations. Mr. Luke is the adviser of F.F.A. at Roosevelt.

The Minstrels

Every day during the second period the Glee Club warbles away hoping to sound like the A Cappella Choir. It is under the direction of Mr. C. Wesley Andersen and is a preparatory organization for the A Cappella Choir. The Glee Club sings mostly choir music. This year the Glee Club took part in several concerts with the choir. They presented the "Elijah," the "Messiah," and the "Passion of the Lord According to Saint Matthew."

Mr. Andersen has had a great deal of experience in music. The Glee Club grew out of an old second choir which was taken over by Mr. Andersen in 1933. Mr. Andersen has composed many beautiful songs. He had written

The choral organizations at Roosevelt are fortunate, indeed, to have such a talented instructor.

The only requirement a student needs to fill is to be taking or have taken Swedish at Roosevelt. The club has a new adviser, Mr. Benson, this year.

The club is very active in school affairs. Every spring the graduating seniors are taken to the Svithorck Lodge of Lake Minnetonka for a dinner. Initiation and the traditional Swede-Norse Christmas party are held.

The annual Swede-Norse basketball game was held this season. For the past three years the Swedes have come out victorious and have copped the trophy. There is much friendly rivalry between these two related clubs.

The Svithoid Lodge of Minneapolis awards a plaque each spring to the student making the greatest progress.

The Latin Club, under the direction of Mrs. Gerard, has just finished its sixth year. The qualification for membership is to have an interest in the classics. The club's motto is "Possumus quod nos posse putamus." (We can because we think we can). They hold their meetings on the third Thursday of each month.

Club pins are gold with the emblem of a torch which signifies "Knowledge must light the world." A trophy is given each year to the student who maintains good grades in Latin and who shows an interest in the club.

The activities of the Latin club are many. The members took over the checking service at the Homecoming Dance. At the end of each school year a banquet is held in honor of the senior graduates of the club. One of the most important duties is sending C.A.R.E. packages to Italy.

At one meeting three fellows came bravely to give their opinions on such critical subjects as going steady, manners on dates, and what to talk about on dates. They also answered questions fired at them from the audience of giggling girls.

In October a picnic was held at Lake Hiawatha to welcome the new members. A Christmas party took place in December. There was a square dancing party in the girls' gym at a meeting in March. In April the club went bowling at Skylane Alleys. The girls gave a Mothers' Day Tea in May.

Musical Knights

Harry W. Ranks teaches applied music at Roosevelt. Since he is the only teacher of this kind in the city he makes the rounds of all the high schools each week. He comes to Roosevelt every Tuesday for the fourth, fifth, and sixth periods.

A total of fifty students at Roosevelt are enrolled in applied music classes. One credit is given for each semester's work. Although there is only one hour of class work a week, an hour's practice on voice or an instrument, six days a week is required. Everyone takes a half hour lesson a week from an accredited teacher.

Students start out learning intervals and scales from the first book. Then they progress to the next book on primary chords. The third book is a difficult one about secondary chords and harmony.

Each spring a city contest is held for applied music students. To enter, they must present original compositions. Contestants are given "A" or "B" ratings.

A pupil gets a thorough background of music to enable him to advance farther and faster, no matter what type of music he has chosen. He has an advantage over other musicians to whom the course was not available. We are fortunate that students at Roosevelt have the chance to study advanced music.

It is appropriate for us to recognize the work that these boys and girls are doing because they are making good use of their talents.

The newly organized Sportsmen's Club has been making very rapid progress. Members must be interested in fishing, hunting, trapping, and all other sports. They must also have a desire to conserve our natural resources such as our forests, our water resources, and our game and game reserves.

The meetings are held bi-monthly, and the activities differ at each meeting. At some meetings there are speakers who talk about some of the activities in which the club is interested. At other times there are movies on different subjects of interest to the club.

The club has participated in many activities such as different sport trips. They also had a very successful sports night when many sports such as basketball, volleyball, and ping pong were enjoyed by all. At this event a luncheon was also served.

The Christian Path

Membership in the Christian Fellowship Club is open to boys and girls of all denominations. The club was organized in March 1939. The purpose of the club is to encourage members to be honest, to be dependable, to be cheerful, and to emulate traits of a Christ-centered personality. Students have an opportunity to develop their talents by their service and participation in various activities of Christian Fellowship. Members are expected to follow the club's motto, "Living for Jesus."

Soothsayers

Coached by Miss Wilbur, the cheerleading team this year has been filled with pep and enthusiasm. Whether doing flip flops in maroon knickers or somersaults in bright red hats, they have led cheers faithfully and willingly at all football and basketball games this season.

Letter Lords

The "R" Club was organized in 1940 by Mr. Lobdell. Boys automatically become members when they have won a letter in any recognized sport. Activities include the annual volleyball game with men teachers, and father and sons' fun night. Advisers are Sam Halron and Toy Jambeck.

Rhythm Makers

The Swing Band is composed of about twenty boys who enjoy playing swing music. These boys represent all grades and have the ability to play. They have played at the homecoming, the spring party, the talent shows, and many other parties. The swing band is under the direction of Jerry Soderberg.

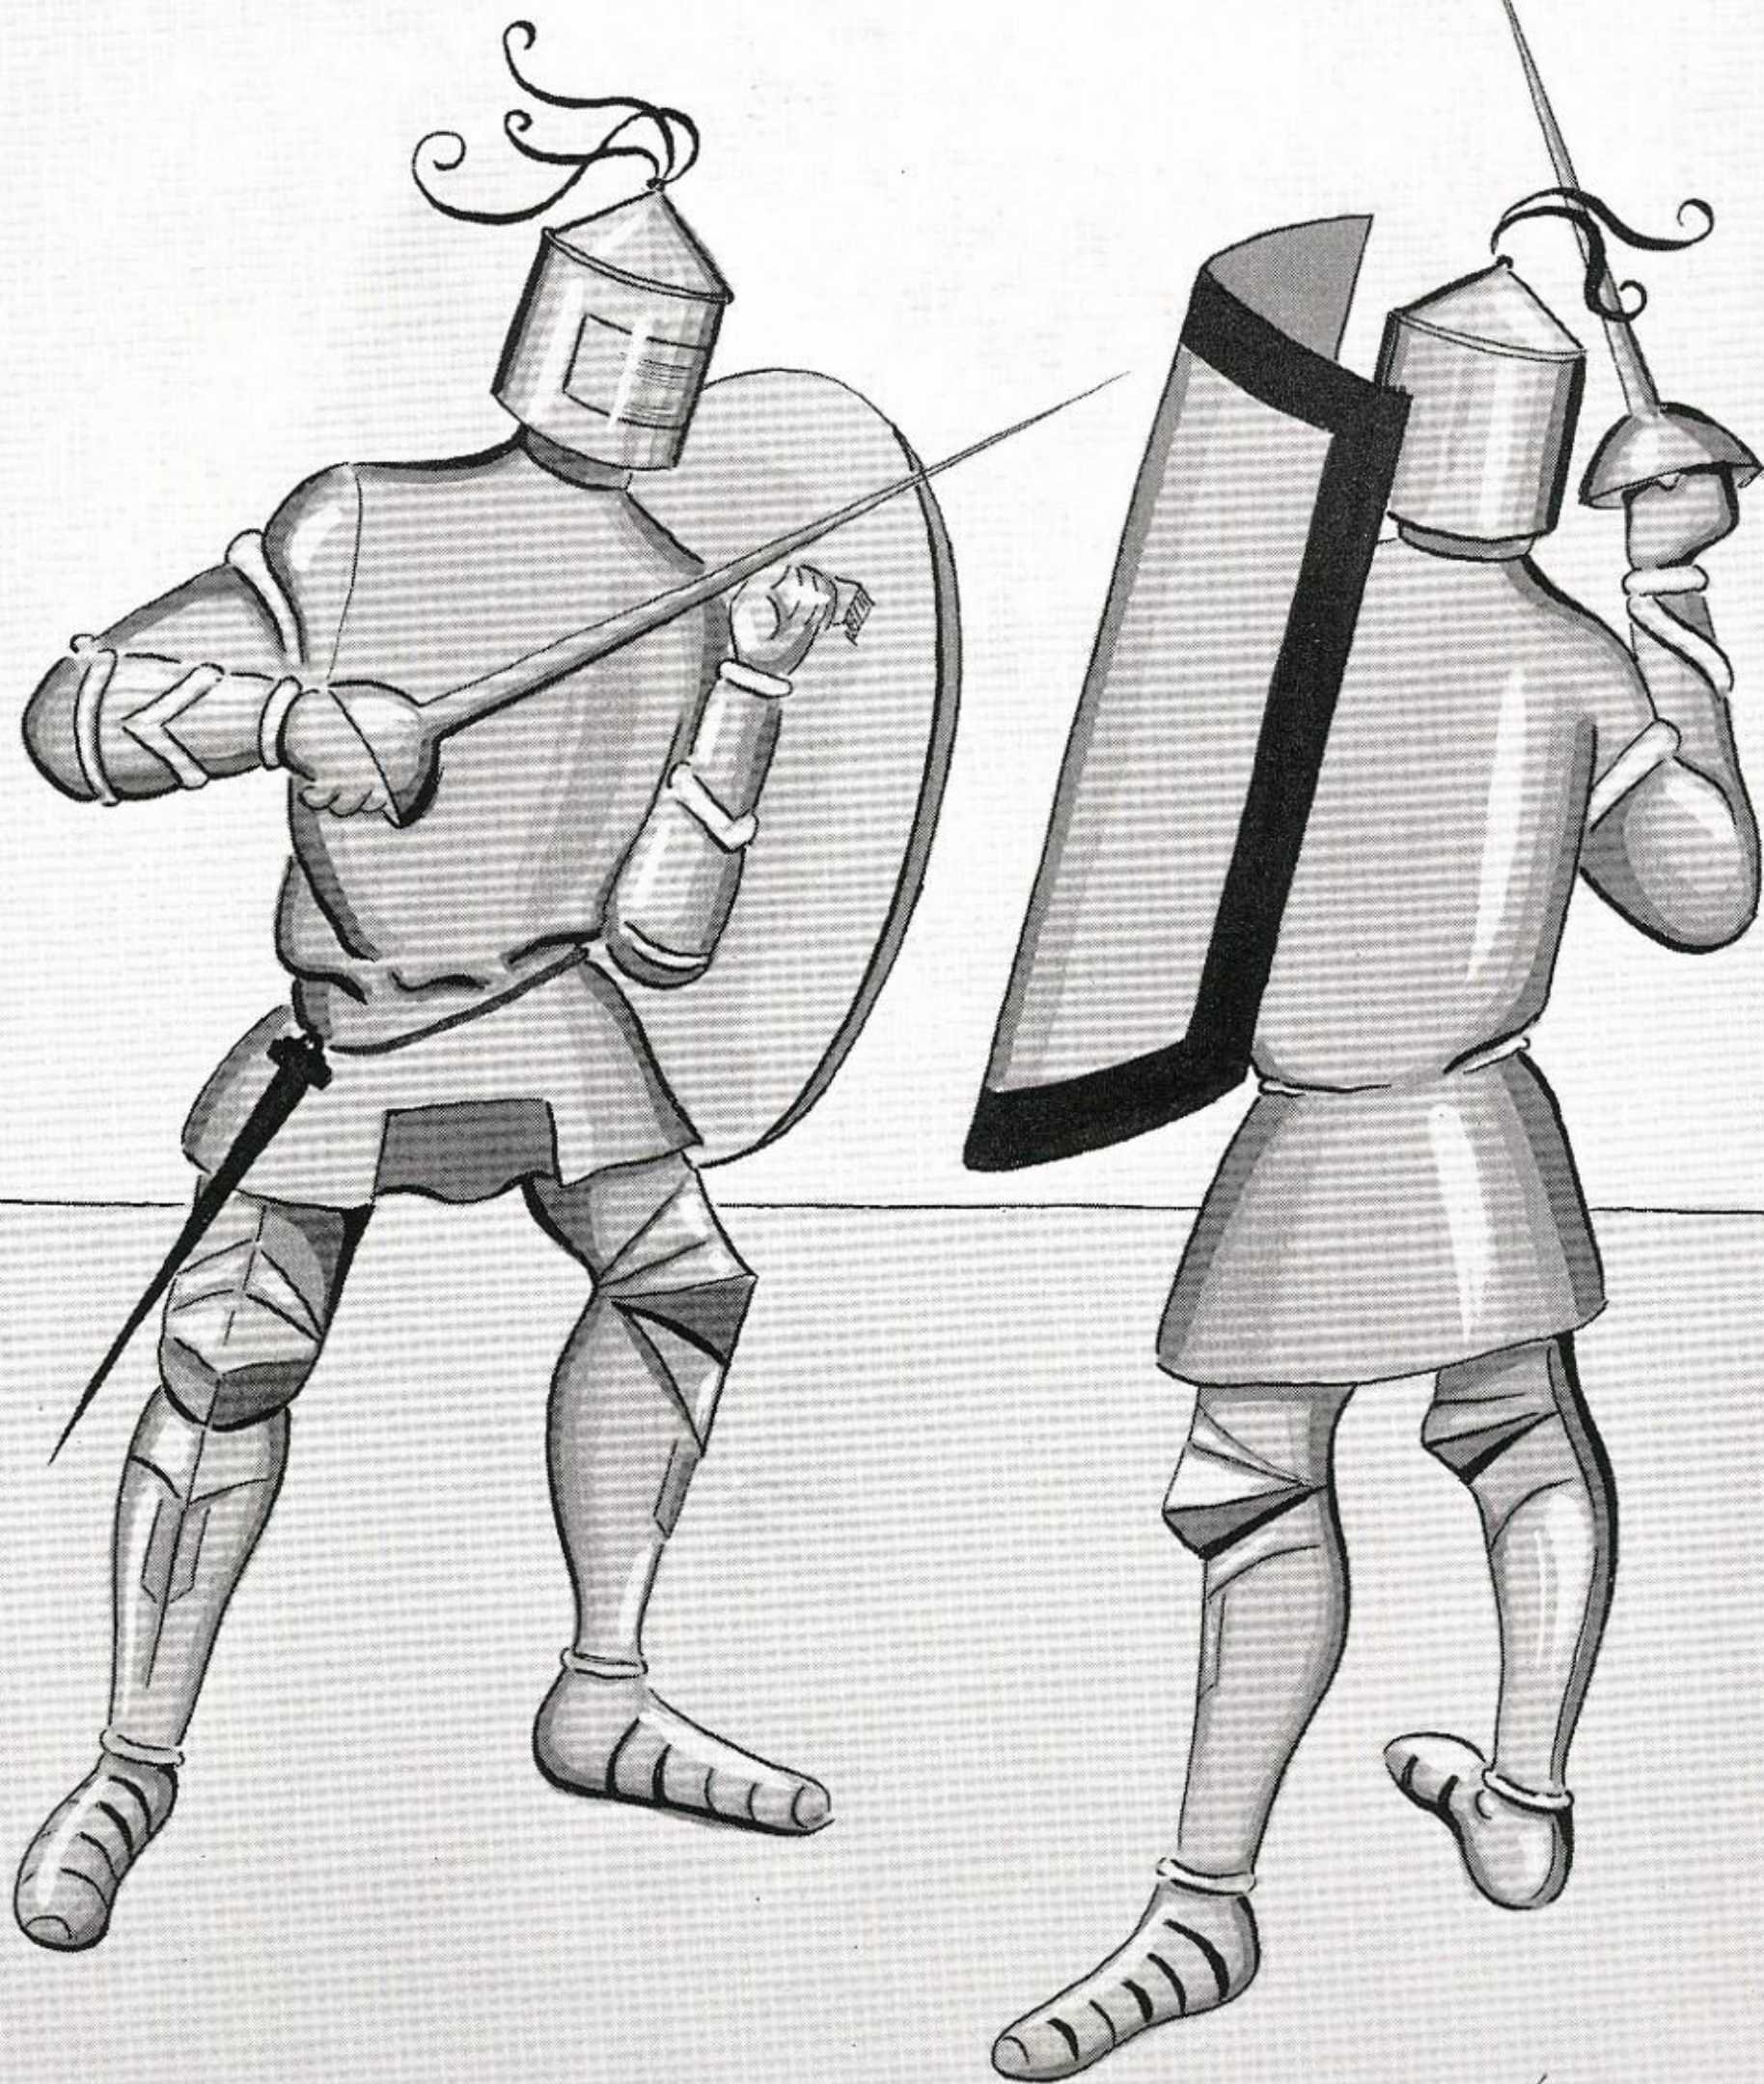

All members of this band play several nights a week with other swing bands. The training received during high school assures practically all of the members a professional job after graduation.

Mr. Swanson and Mr. Henning have often seen former Roosevelt students playing at the Lyceum Theater and at many professional concerts.

the Teddies played their best game of the season; but nevertheless, they lost to the champions from Edison.

The team was led by all-city halfback Bill Luke and several other stars.

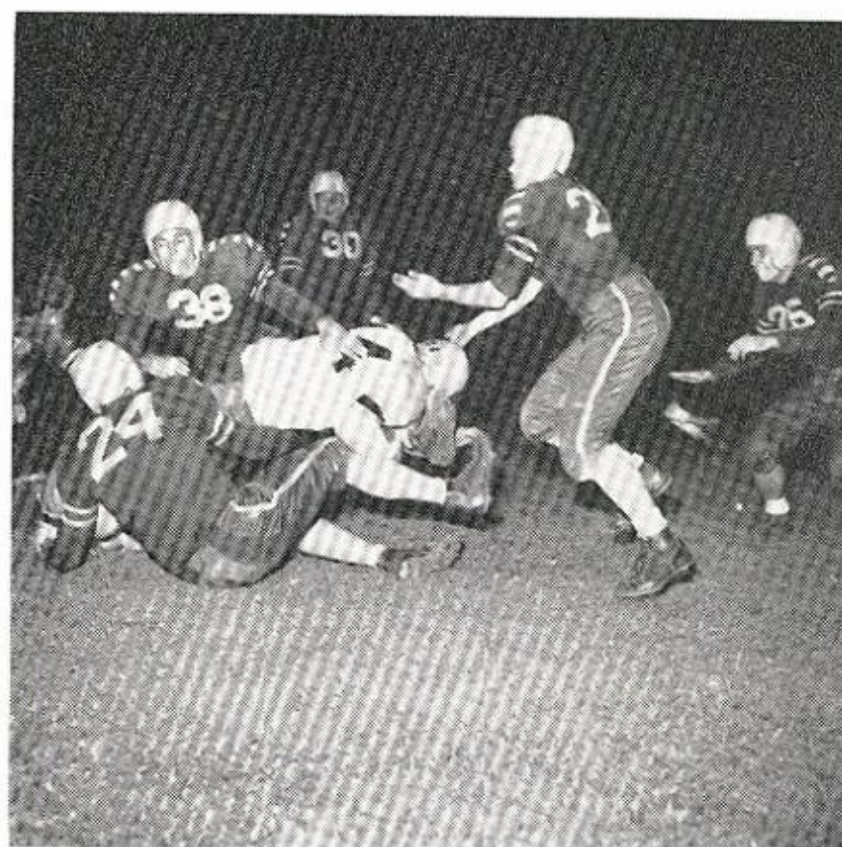

The Broken Bone Club

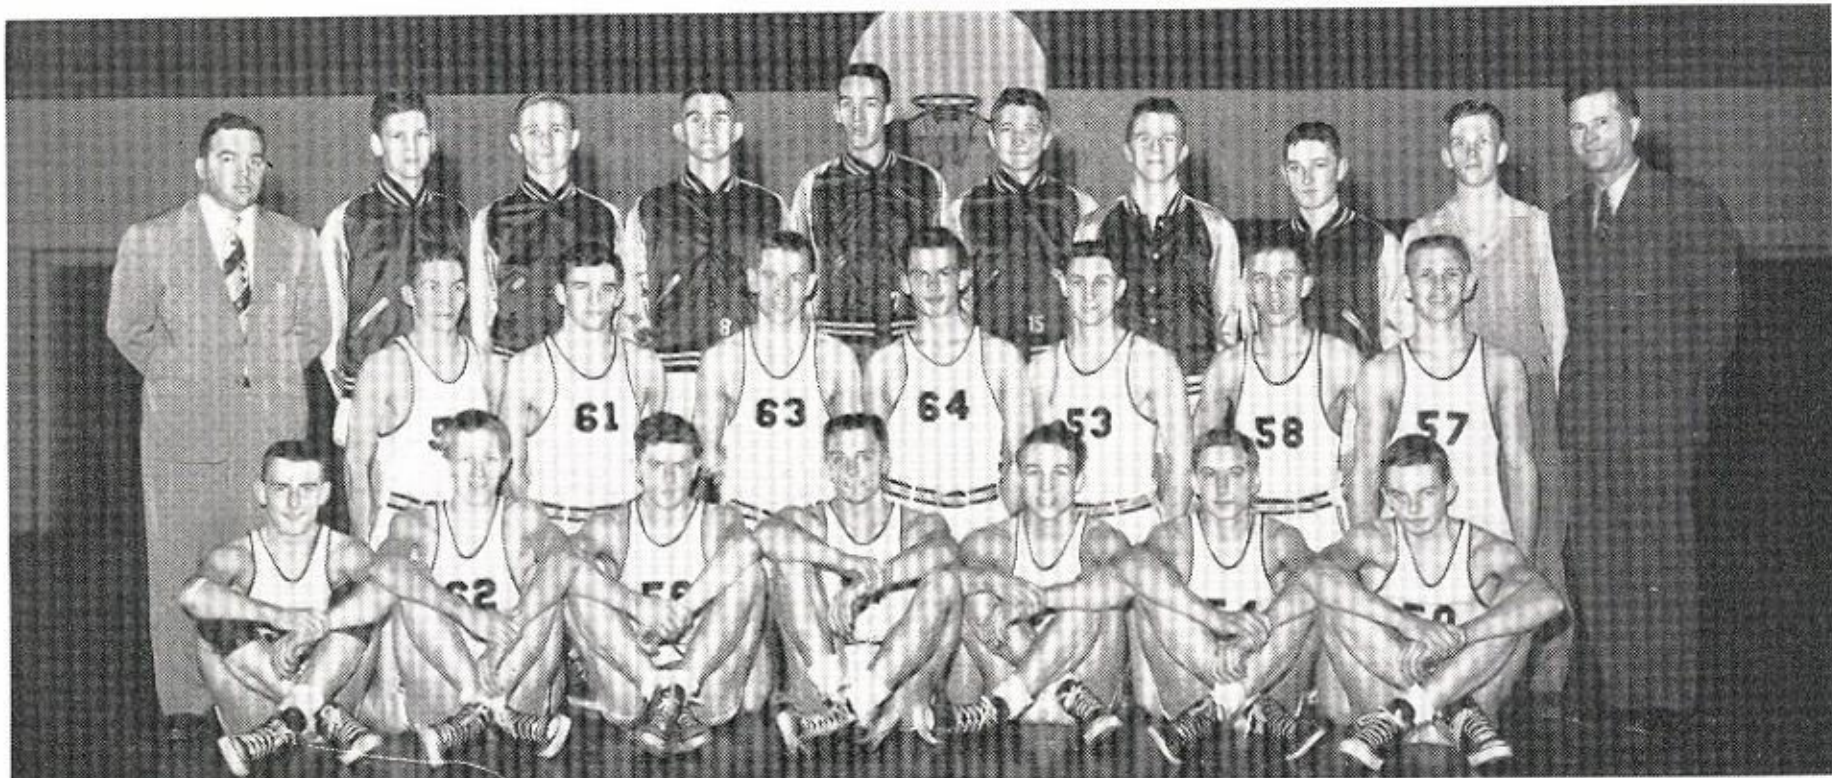

Hard luck hit the Teddies when the team was hit by injuries. George DuFour and Bruce Anderson each broke a leg. Herman Grossman broke his finger; and Bill Weber and Jim Bevans, respectively, were hampered by a broken arm and a shoulder dislocation. If these boys had been able to play every game, the team might have turned one of their defeats into a victory.

Cagers

Starting out like a house-a-fire, the basketball team looked as if it were going to go places this year. After winning their first four games, three starters were lost by graduation. The last four games were losses; however, the boys showed they had the fight when they almost tipped Vocational in the first playoff game.

An outstanding job was done by Gene Anonsen and Denny Huff in holding All-City

Bob Peterson down until they both fouled out. Denny Huff also outscored Peterson while he was in the contest.

Juniors returning next year are Denny Huff, Tom Craig, Clyde Johnson, Bob Kalb, and Kenny Fransen. These boys did an excellent job this year, and their experience should make the Teds a title threat next year.

The B Squad under Mr. Yngve had a record almost identical to the Varsity Squad, winning five games and losing five games. Most of their losses were games which could have

The Teds upset a highly favored Marshall five in their third game of the season. This victory and the next one with South gave the Teds undisputed first place.

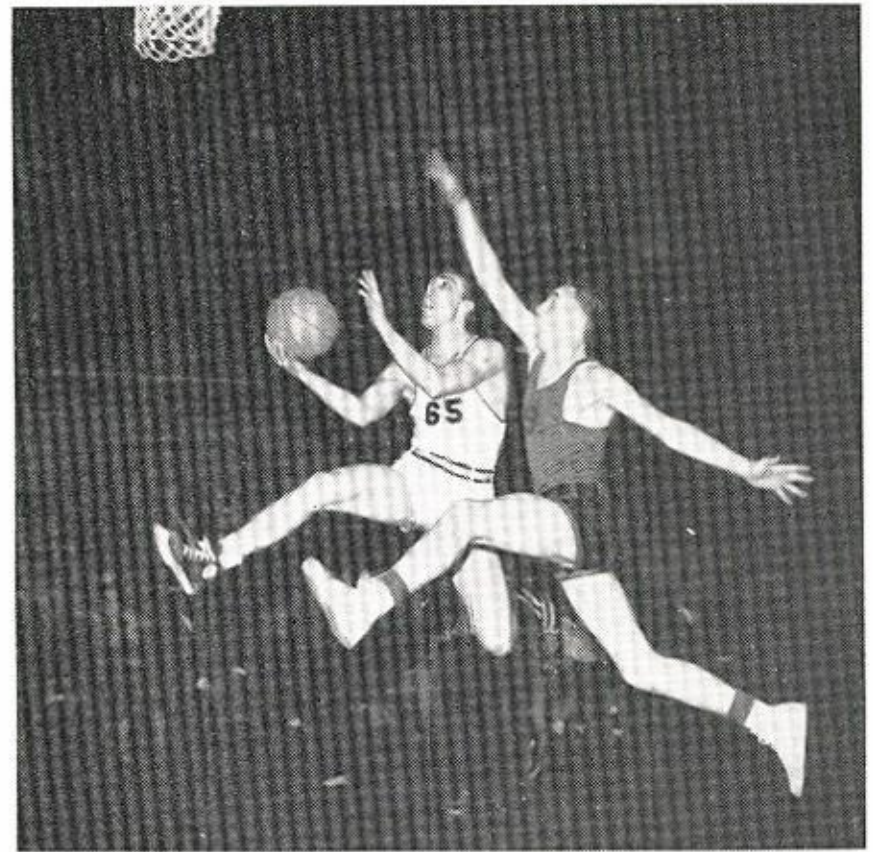

After graduation, Washburn, West, Central, and Vocational were victorious over the Teddy quintet. The services of Ken Kielty, Ken Erickson, and Rog Larson were missed in this latter part of the schedule. These three received honorable mention in the Star Journal All-City team as did Gene Anonsen, a stalwart on both offense and defense for the Teds. Bill Luke, Lowell Lysen, John Berndgen, and Pete Hansen were other seniors who helped Roosevelt win many ball games.

The Cross Country team came through with another spectacular season. One of the highlights of the season came when Mr. Yngve and nine boys from the Cross Country squad went to Duluth for a meet with Duluth Central and Grand Marie in which the Teds emerged victorious. Mr. Yngve's boys placed second in the City Meet and third in the State Meet.

They hold victories over Edison, South, and Henry in conference meets. They were handed their only defeat in the first meet of the year at the hands of Southwest.

The Roosevelt swimmers wound up the season with a won-lost column of seven wins and three losses in conference meets. They tried for third place with Marshall High School.

The most interesting meet of the season came when thirteen boys from the swimming team and Coach Toy Jambeck journeyed to Rochester. Although they were defeated, the boys had a very good time.

Coach Toy Jambeck is very well satisfied with this year's swimming team. It was a team that improved steadily all season.

Perhaps one of the outstanding wrestlers to come is Bill Johnson. He was undefeated in city competition in his three years at Roosevelt. Bill was also the region champ this year. Jim Manoleff, Dale Bjorklund, Ray Hamer, Dick Fritske, and Skip Anderson were constant winners for the grappling team.

Pucksters

The Ted hockey team had a very good season. At the beginning the outlook didn't look too promising as only three lettermen returned from last year; however, the team worked hard and showed that they had the stuff to win.

The boys practiced during Christmas vacation, and during this time they played many practice games with other schools which weren't on their schedule. This practice gave the team some added game experience which they needed.

In the first game of the season they pulled out a victory from Marshall, 3-2, in the dying moments of the game. The next game they pulled an upset by defeating a strong Edison six. The next two games were their only losses of the season to South and to the region champions, Washburn. They lost both of these games by one goal. The last games were wins administered over North and Vocational.

The only returning lettermen were Captain Jim Holte, Dick Stromberg, and Dick Swenson. Skaters who earned their letters were seniors Joel Kleschold, Tom Appel, Bob Werner, Bill Wolner, Bud Nordstrom, and George Marten, juniors John Scudder and Jim Haeg, and sophomores Paul Scudder, George Roehrdanz, Bob Selby, and Tom Dobson.

Northmen

The Roosevelt skiers suffered a hard blow this year when they lost the city meet to North by one point. They took first in both the Jumping and the Cross Country events; however, it was a fifth in the Slalom that lost the meet for them.

The state ski meet this year was held at Duluth with eight boys from the Roosevelt team participating. They were Art Johnson, James Larson, Charles Kirschner, Roger Lagerstrom, Keith Crosby, Dick Kenfield, Gordon Sathre, and Ralph Iverson. When the smoke of the battlefield had cleared, the Teds emerged with a third place. Art Johnson who was the most consistent winner and captain of the squad placed fourth in the state in Jumping. Keith Crosby and Dick Kenfield placed 9th and 15th respectively in Cross Country.

Mr. Eggan who is the coach of all Roosevelt skiers says that with the material we had this season we did very well, and with a few good breaks we could have gone all the way.

Diamond Men

The Colonel baseball team of last year seemed to do all right until they met West High. West took both of the decisions from Roosevelt in very thrilling games. They had to play three games instead of two when the first one ended in an extra-inning tie.

The other teams in the Southern Division were beaten by Roosevelt in their meetings. The team was led by all-city Don Platzer and many other good ball players.

This year's team looks quite promising.

In practice games this spring the Ted nine has done exceptionally well.

Girls' Sports

The gym period has come to be a favorite here at Roosevelt. The classes offered to the girls are modern dance, team sports, and individual sports.

Girls who have participated in the modern dance class will never forget their dance to "Syncopation." It gives the girls poise as well as lots of fun.

Team sports is another favorite. During the winter, volleyball and basketball are played; when spring comes the girls may be seen playing baseball on the field.

Basketball, volleyball, ping pong, and softball have long been intramural sports here at Roosevelt. This year the new All Nations Tournament was started.

Basketball and volleyball are played with all of the homerooms entering teams.

Ping pong is played individually with those interested signing up with Mr. Halron or Mr. Swadner, two very good advisers for the intramural sports program.

10TH GRADE—Row 1: Sampson, Miller. Row 2: Swedberg, Lee, Dynison.

11TH GRADE—Row 1: Lefler, Hilgeman. Row 2: Jorgenson, H. Johnson, Holm.

Basketball

Basketball is the oldest of the intramural sports. This year, as before, it was a very close tournament. All homerooms are entered with each grade having its own champion.

This year room 305 won the tenth grade championship; 321, the eleventh grade championship; and 320, the twelfth grade championship. In a playoff between the grades room 320 won.

Ping Pong Champions

Nordstrom, Dymoke, Grandland

12th Grade — Row 1: Sword, M. Olsen, Miss Crogan, Halle. Row 2: Adams, Borsch, Alexson. Row 3: Grobel, Luke, Fleming, D. Gustafson.

Ping Pong

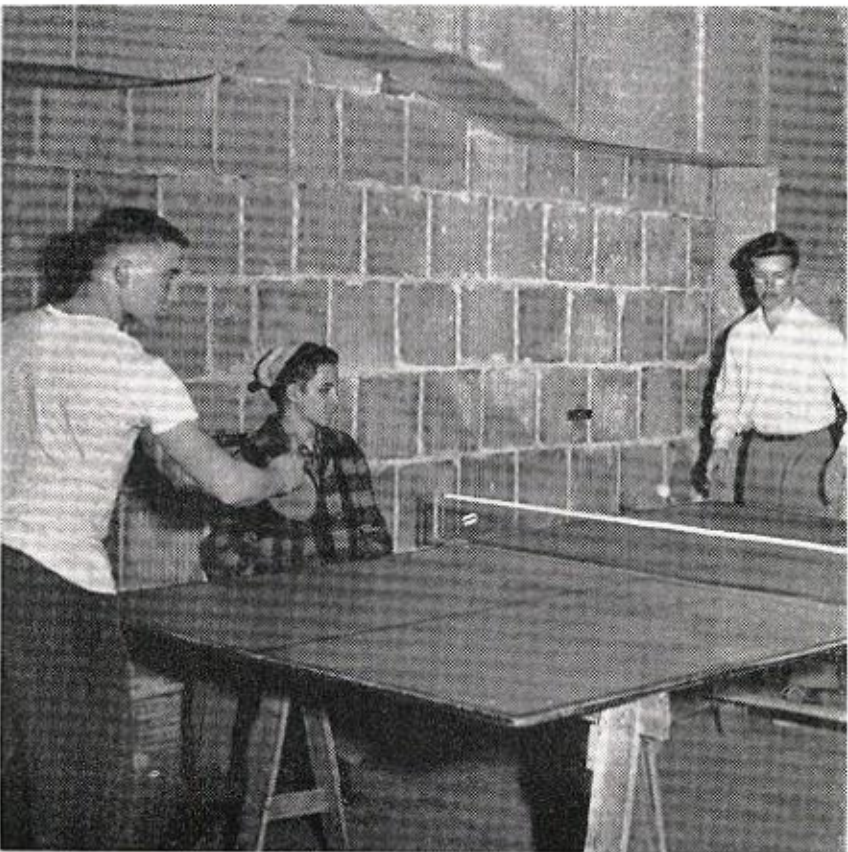

The Ping Pong Tournament this year was run off by Mr. Halron and Mr. Swadner.

The winners of this year's tournament were Bud Nordstrom for the twelfth grade; Chuck Dymoke, for the eleventh grade; and Brian Grandlund, for the tenth grade.

Next year a bigger turnout will be appreciated for this sport.

The Championship Match

B. Anderson, Lysen, Nordstrom.

11th Grade — Row 1: N. Smith, Miss Door, J. Marcantelli, J. Harris. Row 2: C. Lefler, B. Lundgren, A. Gallagher. Row 3: P. Hilgeman, W. Holm, J. Jorgenson, H. Johnson.

Volleyball

If you wondered what all the excitement in the girls' gym was this winter, I'll let you in on a secret. It was the volleyball tournament being run off by Miss Wilbur.

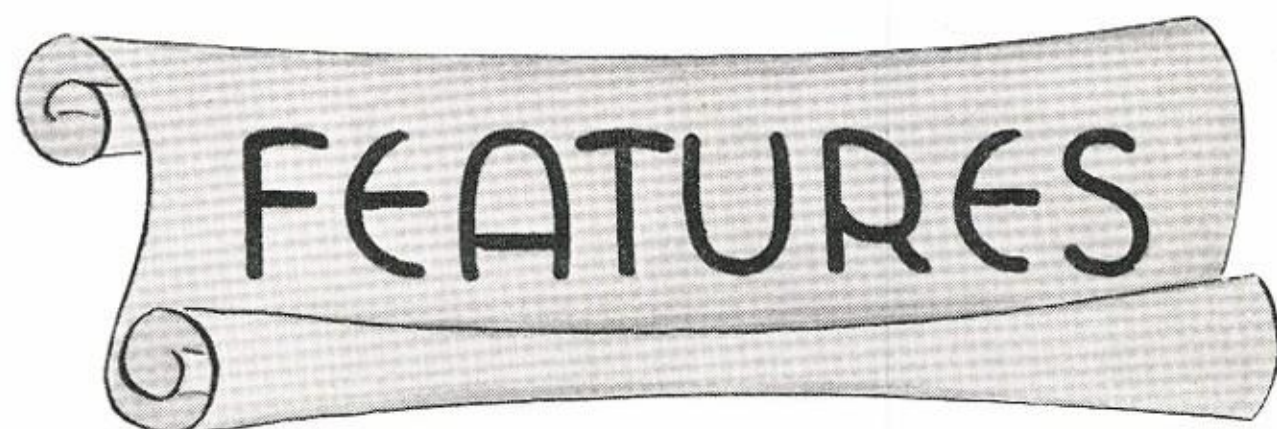

This year Miss Crogan's home room, 104, won the school championship by defeating the eleventh grade champions, 321, and the tenth grade champions, 305.

10th Grade — Row 1: Schwalbe, Shannon, B. Olson, Siewert. Row 2: Adkins, B. Miller, Sampson. Row 3: Selby, Wickoren, Lee, Dixon.

Homecoming

The Regal Affair

To the rhythm of "How High the Moon," the final event of the great day was the homecoming dance in the evening. The music was furnished by the Roosevelt Swing Band under the direction of Jim Forberg. During the intermission a program was presented in the auditorium, consisting of a talent show under the supervision of the reigning king and queen. The program was followed by refreshments for all. Modern dancing continued in both gyms after the traditional ceremonies.

The decorations in the gym were done in the school colors, maroon and gold. The lunchroom also was decorated for the occasion. Everyone joined in the fun.

Our Model Queen

Our homecoming queen for the year, Miss Carol Carlson, was very active in all school affairs. She is a sports-minded girl and has taken many high honors in ski jumping. Carol will always be remembered for her pleasing smile, her personality, and her ability to make friends.

As a member of both the school's marching band and the orchestra, Carol plays the flute and the piccolo. Recently she was a contestant on Cedric Adams' "Talent Show" program and won a chance to try at the $1,000 scholarship award.

Attired in her royal robes, Carol made a striking queen, one of whom Roosevelt could well be proud.

Homecoming

Our "Lame" King

King Bruno Anderson and his Queen Carol Carlson were carried to their thrones by members of the football team. Bruno, one of the outstanding football players until the one play which resulted in a broken leg, enjoyed the festivities even though he couldn't dance.

Special seating was arranged for him on the football field for the home game with the Volts. It seemed as though Central was his downfall this year, besides his broken leg, he received a cut eye in a baseball game. Bruno is very active in school activities. He is a member of "Future Farmers of America."

The Royal Assembly

The Royal Court, as shown above, consisted of the king and the queen and their eight attendants, four for the king and four for the queen. The members of the court were attired in dress suits and formals. Attending the Queen were Grace Anderson 12B, Sally Norell 12B, Marilyn Hall 12A, and Gayle Rustad 12A. The King's men were John Cannon 12B, Jim Steinhagen 12B, Curt Nelson 12B, and Rog Larson 12A. The members of the Royal Court were elected by the senior classes.

Members of the Court of the King were seated for the victorious afternoon game on the 50 yard line. During the half, convertibles driven around the track displayed the select group.

Winter Carnival

The event of the year with the most suspense was the Annual Winter Carnival. There were five contestants for king, and no one knew who was the lucky person until the actual crowning. The candidates were taken to Sibley Field on a decorated, horse-drawn sleigh. There Dean McKinney, the previous year's winner, crowned Curt Nelson, King of the Carnival. After the crowning, Curt, in the royal robe, took his seat on the ice throne while the runners up—Wendy Ottum, John Cannon, Ray Johnson, and Glen Koepke—were seated next to him.

The festivities of the afternoon supervised by Sam Halron (king on skates) were speed racing, figure skating, and couple and group skating. In the speed racing Marlys Nelson and John LeBoutillier took the honors for the twelfth grade, Jean LeBoutillier and Howie Johnson for the eleventh grade, and Sally Stafford and Bill Sandberg for the tenth grade. The participants for the figure skating were Pat Neil and Nancy Dvorak. Second time winners, Jean LeBoutillier and her brother John, took the honors for couple skating. Another event was the broom and volley ball. The regular hockey game between the alumni and the R.H.S. team finished the afternoon's activities.

The day was highlighted by a "Snow Slide" dance held in both gyms and a program during which the awards were given to the afternoon winners. The weather was cold but everyone was kept warm by Sam's enthusiasm.

January Class Banquet

Gold decorations in the forms of carts, airplanes, and covered wagons highlighted the table decorations and presented the appropriate "Centennial" theme for the annual January banquet. Since gold was discovered in 1849 and Minnesota was made a territory in 1849, the ornaments served a two-fold purpose. The wall decorations were made by a committee under the direction of Miss Milsten. With the old-time dancers, Paul Bunyan himself, and the wild atmosphere including log cabins and trees, the contrast between 1849 and 1949 was very realistic. Airplanes and all of man's modern inventions and conveniences indicated progress made since 1849. The decorations fit in well with the class motto, "Tonight we take off—Where will we land?"

As tradition allows, master of ceremonies, Jack Stiehm, conducted the program. The farewell address was delivered by the 12A president, Rog Larson. 12B president, Tom Medvec, received the Teddy dressed in the class colors, wine and grey. After the ceremonies the Last Will and the Prophecy were read by various members of the class. A humorous poem written and delivered by Wes Anderson was a center attraction. It featured the faculty and an anecdote about each. These stories got laughs from both students and teachers.

There were 150 hungry people who were served delicious turkey and all of its trimmings by the 12B's. An evening of dancing and games followed the banquet dinner for the grads.

With another school year gone, let's turn back the months and remember some of the strange happenings of the years in high school. It was a little difficult at first when you came into R.H.S. a mere "page." A year later things came somewhat easier, and the finale—your senior year—was wonderful. It was very pleasant being one of the tops who were so admired by the lower classmen. Now that you're out in the world with a "few" other million people it isn't so easy dropping your rank and taking the last place in line. By the way, have you still maintained the titles you were awarded by your pals? Have you made sure you are going to succeed? Are you still as peppy and friendly as you used to be? Better check up before it's too late. These are the things that are really going to count. Good luck always!

June Class

It's graduation time and once again we look upon those who have been chosen as outstanding in their class. As juniors and sophomores we all look forward to the day when we may receive the honor of being chosen as one of these favorites.

Graduation is a big event and has many exciting experiences. Being chosen as a "Fame Favorite" is one. It isn't so much the title that counts; it's knowing that the kids in the class think that you're something that really matters. Then, too, it's rather nice to have another picture in the annual. Remember the fun the seniors had taking the shots? The poor photographer racked his brains trying to come up with some interesting pictures. From trees to motor scooters—that's quite a difference. It was fun that he was such a good sport about climbing and almost killing himself. We underclassmen do envy you grads. Someday we'll be one of you. . . .
